Sale — aforesaid, duly commissioned and sworn, Personally came and appeared J. H. Cocoran Mr. Timothy Hugh Cocoran of the parish of East Baton Range in this state Who declared that for the consideration of Eight hundred Dollars, to him paid in the manner herein after set forth, he does

By these Presents GRANT, BARGAIN, SELL, CONVEY, TRANSFER, ASSIGN AND SET OVER with a full guarantee against all troubles, debts, mortgages, claims, evictions, donations, alienations, or other incumbrances whatsoever, unto Mr. Drauzin Cannon of this city, residing on the Bayou Road, presents and accepting his heirs and assigns, and acknowledging possession thereof a negro man slave named Anthony, aged about twenty-three years, fully guaranteed against the vices of mollesities prescribed by law, save & except the vice of running away, which slave was acquired by the present seller from Edwards Ogden, by act passed before William Roswell Notary Public, on the fourth day of March Eighteen hundred & thirty six.
And thereupon the said seller declared that he hereby binds himself to furnish to the undersigned Notary, in the shortest possible delay, a quittance from his wife to all his rights on the said slave Anthony, and also a certificate from the Judges ex-officio recorder of mortgages for his said parish as required by the article 3338, Civil Code of this state, with which declaration the purchaser is satisfied & content & releases the undersigned Notary from all responsibility for passing this act without the said Documents.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said Slave unto the said Purchaser his heirs and assigns, to their proper use and behoof forever. And the said Seller himself, and his heirs, the said Slave to the said Purchaser his heirs and assigns shall and will warrant and forever defend against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever by these presents. And the said vendor do moreover subrogate the said purchaser to all the rights and actions of warranty, which he has or may have, against his own vendor or against the vendors of his vendor, fully authorising said purchaser to exercise the said rights and actions, in the same manner as he himself might or could have done.

This Sale is made for the sum of Eight hundred Dollars, of which four hundred Dollars have been paid in ready money, and the remaining sum of four hundred dollars, in the form of a promissory note of the purchaser, made to the order of the said Seller, by Mr. Diego Murphy, dated this day, and payable in one year, which note has with said ready money been delivered to said seller, who acknowledges the receipt thereof, and renounces all right of mortgage or other privilege which he has by law, on said slave for the security of the payment thereof.
